Dear Mr. Casey:

At the Secretary's request I am traveling to Paris, Bonn, and the Netherlands to meet with leading representatives of Socialist and Social-Democratic Parties, as well as with government leaders to discuss principal foreign policy questions of mutual interest. The Central American situation will be paramount among these problems and, consequently, I would be grateful if it would be possible for [redacted] to accompany me to those three places.

I am leaving Tuesday evening for Paris and meetings begin Wednesday morning. I am sorry for the very short notice, but it seems like a worthwhile endeavor.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Ledeen
Special Adviser to the Secretary
